

PAIA AND POPIA MANUAL

This PAIA and POPIA Manual has been prepared in accordance with section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 and to address requirements of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013

This PAIA and POPIA Manual applies to TreasuryONE (Pty) Ltd, Registration Number: 2000/020822/07 and its Subsidiaries [Refer Section 6 – Scope] (Hereinafter “The TreasuryONE Group”)

1. INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (the “PAIA”) gives third parties the right to approach private bodies and the government to request information held by them, which is required in the exercise and/or protection of any rights. On request, the private body or government is obliged to release such information unless the PAIA expressly states that the records containing such information may or must not be released. This PAIA and POPIA Manual informs Requesters of procedural and other requirements which a request must meet as prescribed by the PAIA.

The Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (the “POPIA”) provides for:

- i. promotion the protection of Personal Information processed by public and private bodies;
- ii. certain conditions so as to establish minimum requirements for the processing of Personal Information;
- iii. to provide for the establishment of an Information Regulator to exercise certain powers and to perform certain duties and functions in terms of the POPIA and the PAIA;
- iv. to provide for the issuing of codes of conduct;
- v. to provide for the rights of persons regarding unsolicited electronic communications and automated decision making;
- vi. to regulate the flow of Personal Information across the borders of the Republic; and
- vii. to provide for matters connected therewith.

Section 14 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, provides “that everyone has the right to privacy”. The right to privacy includes a right to protection against the unlawful collection, retention, dissemination and use of personal information.

The POPIA gives Data Subjects<sup>1</sup> the right to, in the prescribed manner, request a Responsible Party to correct or delete Personal Information about the Data Subject in its possession or under its control that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or obtained unlawfully; or destroy or delete a record of Personal Information about the Data Subject that the Responsible Party is no longer authorised to retain access and/or request the correction or deletion of any Personal Information held about them that may be inaccurate, misleading or outdated.

The TreasuryONE Group endorses the spirit of the PAIA and POPIA and believes that This PAIA and POPIA Manual will assist Requesters in exercising their rights. The PAIA seeks, inter alia, to give effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the state or by any other person where such information is required for the exercise or protection of any right. This PAIA Manual was compiled in terms of Section 51 of the PAIA to facilitate access to records held by the TreasuryONE Group. It contains information required by a person wishing to exercise any right, contemplated by the PAIA. It is available in English.

A copy of this PAIA and POPIA Manual is available to the public in a PDF ("Portable Document Format") version on the TreasuryONE Group website or on request from the Information Officer referred to in this PAIA and POPIA Manual. This PAIA Manual is also available for inspection, at the office of the offices of the Human Rights Commission at Braampark Forum 3, 33 Hoofd St, Johannesburg, 2017, South Africa and on its website at www.sahrc.org.za.

2. PURPOSE OF PAIA

The purpose of PAIA is to promote the right of access to information, to foster a culture of transparency and accountability by giving the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.

In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

Section 9 of the PAIA recognises that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality; and
- Effective, efficient and good governance; and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

Wherever it comes to the TreasuryONE Group's attention that existing or new legislation allows a Requester access on a basis other than that set out in the PAIA, TreasuryONE shall update the list accordingly.

If a Requester believes that a right of access to a record exists in terms of other legislation listed above or any other legislation, the Requester is required to indicate what legislative right the request is based on, to allow the Information Officer the opportunity of considering the request in light thereof.

10. PARTICULARS IN TERMS OF SECTION 51 OF THE PAIA

The PAIA came into effect on 9 March 2001. The PAIA seeks to advance a culture of transparency and accountability in both public and private bodies. The legislation was enacted as a direct response to Section 32(2) of the Constitution of South Africa – the right of access to information – which requires that the Government implements laws in an effort to make information pertaining to public and private bodies more accessible to all.

The PAIA gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the State and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. Where a request is made in terms of the PAIA, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, except where the PAIA expressly provides that the information may or must not be released.

One of the main requirements specified in the PAIA is the compilation of a manual that provides information on both the types and categories of records held by the public or private body. In terms of the PAIA, the TreasuryONE Group is regarded as a “private body” and therefore the requirements regarding access must be in compliance with the provisions of the PAIA relevant to private bodies and more in particular Section 51 of the PAIA.

In compliance with Section 51 of the PAIA this PAIA Manual sets out the following details:

- a. The TreasuryONE Group's contact details including, physical and postal addresses, telephone and fax numbers, electronic mail address of the person tasked in terms of this Code of Conduct;
  - b. Information on how to obtain and access this Code of Conduct and a guide on how to use it;
  - c. Categories of information held by the TreasuryONE Group that is available without a person having to formally request such details in terms of the PAIA;
  - d. Categories of information held by the TreasuryONE Group that is available in accordance with other legislation and which, subject to the PAIA, may be made available by the TreasuryONE Group on receipt of and consideration of a formal request, made in terms of the PAIA;
  - e. Sufficient information to facilitate a request for access to records and a description of the subjects on which records are available from the TreasuryONE Group;
- i. Adherence to these requirements entails not only compilation of the external manual but also compliance with the general provisions stated in the PAIA.

11. GUIDE ON HOW TO USE THE PAIA – [Section 10]

The Human Rights Commission has been tasked with the administration of the PAIA.

In terms of Section 10 of the PAIA, the Human Rights Commission has compiled a guide which is intended to assist users in the interpretation of the PAIA and how to access the records of private and public bodies and the remedies available in law regarding a breach of any of the provisions of the PAIA.

Should any person have queries or concerns relating to their rights and in particular their right to access information from a private or public body, such queries should be directed to:

13. RECORDS THAT ARE NOT AUTOMATICALLY AVAILABLE

Records of the TreasuryONE Group which are not automatically available must be requested in terms of the procedure set out in section 8 of this PAIA Manual and which may be subject to the restrictions and right of refusal to access as provided for in the PAIA.

13.1 Request procedure

Please note that the TreasuryONE Group is concerned about protecting the confidential information of Data Subjects. Please motivate any request for Personal Information very carefully, having regard to the POPIA.

Any person making a request for access to records of the TreasuryONE Group is referred to as a "Requester".

The Requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the PAIA relating to the request for access to records.

The Requester must complete the prescribed form application form attached hereto as Annexure A marked Form C and submit the form as well as payment of the request fee and a deposit, if applicable, to the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group at the postal or physical, fax or electronic mail address as stated above.

The prescribed form must be filled in with sufficient particulars to at least enable the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group to identify:

- (a) record or records requested;
- (b) identity of the Requester;
- (c) which form of access is required, if the request is granted; and
- (d) postal address, telephone number and fax number of the Requester.

The Requester must state that he/she/it requires the information to exercise or protect her/his/it's right and clearly state what the nature of the right is to be exercised or protected. In addition, the Requester must clearly specify why the records are necessary to exercise or protect such a right.

Such request must be processed within 30 (thirty) days after the request has been received.

The Requester shall be informed whether the access has been granted or denied within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the request and give notice with reasons to that effect.

The 30 (thirty) day period within which the TreasuryONE Group has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 (thirty) days if the request is for a vast amount of information, or the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 (thirty) day period. The Information Officer will notify the Requester in writing should an extension be sought.

If the request for access is granted, the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group must advise the Requester:

- (a) the access fee (if any) to be paid upon access;
- (b) the form in which access will be given; and
- (c) that the Requester may lodge an application with a court against the access fee to be paid or the form of access granted, and the procedure, including the period allowed, for lodging the application.

If the request for access is refused, the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group must:

- (a) state adequate reasons for the refusal, including the provisions of this Act relied on;
- (b) exclude, from any such reasons, any reference to the content of the record; and
- (c) state that the Requester may lodge an application with a court against the refusal of the request, and the procedure (including the period) for lodging the application.

In terms of Section 54 of the PAIA, if all reasonable steps have been taken to find the record requested and there are reasonable grounds to believe that the record is in possession of the TreasuryONE Group but cannot be found, and if it does not exist, then the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group must notify by way of affidavit or affirmation, the Requester that it is not possible to give access to that record.

If after notice is given, the record in question is found, the Requester must be given access thereto unless the ground for the refusal of access exists.

If the request is declined for any reason the notice must include adequate reasons for the decision, together with the relevant provisions of the PAIA relied upon and provide the procedure to be followed should the Requester wish appeal the decision.

Section 59 provides that the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group may serve a record and grant access only to that portion which the law does not prohibit access to.

The Requester must pay the prescribed fee, before any further processing can take place.

13.2 Fees

The PAIA provides for two types of fees, namely:

- (a) A request fee, which will be a standard fee; and
- (b) An access fee, which must be calculated by considering reproduction costs, search and preparation time and costs, as well as postal costs.

When the request is received by the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group, such person shall by notice require the Requester to pay the prescribed request fee, if any, before further processing of the request.

If a Requester requires access to records of his/her Personal Information, there shall be no request fee payable. However, the Requester must pay the prescribed access and reproduction fees for such Personal Information.

If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure including arrangements to make it available in the request form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group shall notify the Requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

The Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group shall withhold the record until the Requester has paid the fees as indicated in Annexure B hereto.

A Requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the records for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group must repay the deposit to the Requester with interest at the prescribed rate.

13.3 Third parties

If the request is for the record pertaining to the third party, the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group must take all reasonable steps to inform the third party of the request. This must be done within 21 (twenty-one) days of receipt of the request. The manner in which this is done must be by the fastest means reasonably possible, but if orally, the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group must thereafter give the third party a written confirmation of the notification.

The third party may within 21 (twenty-one) days thereafter either make representation to the TreasuryONE Group as to why the request should be refused; alternatively grant written consent to the disclosure of the record.

The third party must be advised of the decision taken by the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group whether to grant or to decline the request. A third party who is dissatisfied with the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group's decision to grant a request for information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief.

14. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS IN TERMS OF SECTION 62-69 OF THE PAIA

The TreasuryONE Group has the right to refuse access to information on one or more of the following grounds:

- i. Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, if such disclosure would involve the unreasonable disclosure of Personal Information about a third party, including a deceased individual, subject to the provisions of section 63 (2).
- ii. Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:

- (a) Trade secrets of that party;
  - (b) Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interest of that third party;
  - (c) Information disclosed in confidence by a third party, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
  - (d) Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement.
- iii. Mandatory protection of certain confidential information of third party, where the head of a private body must refuse a request for access to a record of the body if its disclosure would constitute an action for breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement.
- iv. Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property, where such disclosure could endanger the life or physical safety of an individual, or prejudice or impair the security of:
- (a) a building, structure or any system
  - (b) a means of transport, or
  - (c) any other property.
- v. Mandatory protection of records, which would be regarded as privileged from production in legal proceedings.
- vi. Commercial information of private body, in that a request for access to a record may be refused if the record contains:
- (a) trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific or technical information of the institution, which disclosure, could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interest of the institution;
  - (b) Information which, if disclosed could prejudice or put the institution at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition; and
  - (c) A computer program which is owned by the institution and which is protected by copyright.
- vii. Mandatory protection of research information of the institution. A request will be refused if this disclosure would disclose the identity of the institution, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the researcher at a serious disadvantage.
- viii. Mandatory disclosure in public interest. Despite any of the protections mentioned above, the Director of the TreasuryONE Group shall grant a request for access to a record if:

- (a) the disclosure of the record would reveal evidence of-
  - (i) a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with, the law; or
  - (ii) imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk; and
- (b) the public interest in the disclosure of the record clearly outweighs the harm contemplated in the provision in question.

15. APPEAL - REMEDIES [section 57(1)]

The TreasuryONE Group does not have an internal appeal procedure. As such, the decision made by the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group is final and Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused and the Requester is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group.

If a Requester is aggrieved by the refusal of the Information Officer to grant a request for a record, the Requester may, within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the Information Officer's decision, apply to court for appropriate relief.

The court will review the request and decide whether in fact the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group should give the Requester the information requested or not. A court hearing an application in terms of the PAIA may grant any order that is just and equitable including orders:

- (a) confirming, amending or setting aside the decision which is the subject of the application;
- (b) requiring the Information Officer of the TreasuryONE Group or relevant authority of a public body or the head of a private body to take such action or to refrain from taking such action, as the court considers necessary within the period mentioned in the court order;
- (c) granting an interdict, interim or specific relief, a declaratory order or compensation; or
- (d) granting an order as to costs.
